

James Madison Girls Go Down In Defeat

Written by Cyndie K
Monday, 25 January 2010 11:34

---

The 7th and 8th grade basketball teams lost to the Browning Springs Middle school girls on Thursday.

In the 7th grade game, the Browning Springs girls came from behind to beat the James Madison girls. The first quarter ended with the Browning Springs girls leading 6-2. In the second half, the James Madison girls were able to hold the Browning Springs girls scoreless, taking the lead at halftime 14-6. The third quarter the James Madison girls scored 10 points to Browning Springs 6 points making the score 24-12. The fourth quarter was the quarter that did the James Madison girls in as they were unable to handle the press and only scored 1 point with Browning Springs scoring 14 points. The final score was Browning Springs Middle School 25 and the James Madison girls 24.

The 8th grade team was not able to hold the lead that they had built and lost by 20 with the final score 58-38. Today marks the beginning of the playoff tournaments as both the 7th and 8th grade will be taking on South Middle at 5:30.

Cyndie King
iSurf News